RESPONSIBLE GAMING AGREEMENT (RGA)

Article 1 and 2, RGA: Services and terms and conditions

EXPLANATION - Articles 1 and 2 of the Responsible Gaming Agreement (RGA) explain that by participating in games of chance under this agreement, you understand and accept that you may win or lose. The agreement is accompanied by the Gaming Terms and Conditions (GT&C) and various policies that are integral to the agreement. The operator may also provide additional guidelines that explain how these policies relate to specific in-game offerings, including options to purchase in-game features. It is important to carefully consider these offerings and understand that accepting them binds you to the applicable guidelines.

Article 1

1.1. This agreement (the: "Responsible Gaming Agreement", the: "Agreement", or: "RGA") sets forth an offer as meant in Article 6:217, Section 1 of the Curaçao Civil Code ("CCC") to the consumer ("You", the: "Player", or the: "End User") to participate in games of chance (the: "Games") of which the outcome is determined primarily by random or unpredictable events (the: "Gaming Service"). The Gaming Service is offered via access to a secure and personal area (the: "Gaming Environment") of the Brand: almyra.casino (the: "Brand"), which may also include alternate designations (the: "Aliases"). The Gaming Service is meant to be used for Your personal entertainment only.

1.2. The Gaming Environment is operated by DG Innovations B.V., a company that has its statutory seat and registered office in Curaçao (the: "Operator", the: "Gaming Service Organizer", "Organizer").

1.3. The Gaming Service is operated under the license 1668/JAZ, issued by the Governor of Curaçao to date 1 October 1996 under the ordinance (the: "Ordinance") of June 8, 1993 (the: "Gaming License") of the permanent intermediary Cyberluck Curaçao N.V., a company that has its statutory seat and registered office in Curaçao, trading under the name: "Curaçao eGaming" (the: "Intermediary"). The Minister of Finance of Curaçao has undermandated Stichting Gaming Control Board (the: "Gaming Control Board"), a private foundation that has its statutory seat and registered office in Curaçao, to regulate the Gaming License.

1.4. Under the Agreement and its GT&C contained herein, You and the Operator may agree under various conditions, elements and factors, to bind an entitlement (the: "Stake"), to a specific and predominantly uncertain and unpredictable outcome of a Game. This activity is defined as: placing a "Bet", also referred to as: "Wager". If the outcome of the Game is declared in Your favor (the: "Win"), You shall then be entitled to a benefit, (the: "Prize"). If the outcome of the Bet is not declared in Your favor (the: "Loss"), You shall have forfeited Your Stake.

1.5. In addition to the offerings as set forth in section 1.4., it is at the discretion of the Operator to allow You to be eligible to simultaneously participate in a special, concurrent Game ("Jackpot Game") of which the outcome may lead to the Win of an accumulated Prize ("Jackpot Win"). In addition to winning a Prize, You may also be eligible to receive a benefit that is gained, not by participating in a Game, but for other reasons, such as to provide You with an incentive (the: "Promotion"). A Promotion is not a Prize. The offer is often of a temporary nature, subject to important restrictions and may be abated by the Operator upon expiration.

1.6. Under the Agreement, the Intermediary is appointed by the Organizer and You to assist in resolving any argument, disagreement, controversy or dissension (a: "Dispute") pertaining to the Gaming Service, that the Organizer and the Player were not able to amicably resolve amongst themselves, by binding decision as meant in article 7:900, section 2, CCC (the: "Binding Decision"). For this purpose, the Intermediary, the cost to be borne by the Organizer, validates and registers the Brand, the rules and conditions, including changes and updates, that apply to the Gaming Service, making this information available to the Organizer and to You whenever requested (the: "Intermediary Service"). The Intermediary assigns a unique validation reference to each updated version of the Agreement and the GT&C contained herein, to be clearly marked at the top of the registered and validated document.

1.7. The Gaming Service and the Intermediary Service are jointly referred to as the: "Services"). The Organizer and the Intermediary are jointly referred to as the: "Service Parties". 2.4. You acknowledge, agree and accept that the often temporary nature of the In-Game Offerings makes it impossible to include them within the GT&C, as the GT&C would need to be updated on a weekly or even daily basis. Article 3, RGA: About the Gaming Environment

EXPLANATION - Article 3 of the Responsible Gaming Agreement (RGA) explains that to participate in the Games, you need to register and create an account, containing a balance that represents your entitlement to credits (Game Credits) and other relevant information for game participation. It is important to understand that not all credits can be converted into real-world money or goods. The operator has the right to modify or terminate the availability, use, or transferability of credits.

Article 3, RGA

3.1. In order to be able to participate in the Games, You have to obtain access to the Gaming Environment as meant in section 1.1. For this purpose, You are required to register Your credentials. By registering, You are assigned a personal ledger with the Brand (the: "Account"). The Account contains one or more overviews (the: "Credit Balance", or: "Balance"), displaying Your entitlement to the total amount of credits ("Game Credits" or: "Credits"), as well as other information that might be relevant to You for the purpose of participation in the Games.

3.2. You acknowledge, agree and accept that whether Credits can be considered resources of economic and intrinsic value ("Assets"), depends on the type of Credits:

Credits that have been purchased by exchanging real-world currency for Credits via a deposit (the: "Deposit"), crediting those Credits to Your Account ("Deposited Credits"), are considered Assets. An exchange that has been compromised by a chargeback, reversal or otherwise, does not qualify as a Deposit;

Credits obtained through regular gameplay or promotional means are not considered Assets ("Non-Deposited Credits");

Non-Deposited Credits may only become Assets if they have been specifically marked by the Operator as transferable ("Transferable Credits") into real-world money, tangible goods or services outside the Gaming Environment via means of withdrawal (the: "Withdrawal"). If not, they are to be deemed non-transferable ("Non-Transferable Credits").

3.3. You acknowledge, agree and accept that:

the distinction between Deposited Credits and Non-Deposited Credits is essential;

You shall abide by the terms and conditions related to each type of Credit as outlined in the Account Policy;

the Operator retains the right to modify, suspend, or terminate the availability, use, or transferability of both Deposited and Non-Deposited Credits at its sole discretion, in compliance with the Account Policy;

You should seek legal or financial advice if You have any questions regarding the nature, value, or transferability of Credits before making any decisions related to their usage or disposition.

3.4. In compliance with the Account Policy, the Account may accumulate Credits:

if You make a Deposit, as meant in section 3.2., subsection (a);

if You make a Win as meant in section 1.4.;

if the Operator makes an upward adjustment to the Balance (the: "Adjustment") due to a:

(1) given Promotion;

(2) given compensation, for example, that is meant to negate a negative customers experience;

(3) correction of a previous downward adjustment.

3.5. In compliance with the Account Policy, the Account may dissipate Credits:

if You make a Withdrawal as meant in section 3.2., subsection (c);

if You purchase of a Feature (“Feature Purchase”), including, but not limited to the purchase of extra spins (“Free Bets”);

if You incur a Loss as meant in section 1.4.;

if the Operator makes a downward adjustment to the Balance due to:

(1) an expired Promotion;

(2) restrictions and limitations in as set forth in the Account Policy, including but not limited to a correction of an Overbalance as defined in article 4, section 4, GT&C;

(3) a violation of the Anti-Abuse Policy, as set forth in the Anti-Abuse Policy;

3.6. You acknowledge, agree and accept that the Balance shown only reflects Your entitlement to the total amount of Credits, as meant in section 3.2. (“Total Credit Entitlement”, or: “TCE”). In order to calculate Your entitlement to the total of Withdrawals (“Total Withdrawal Entitlement”, or: “TWE”), the Balance needs to be consolidated in compliance with sections 3.4. and 3.5., resulting in the following equation: “TWE = Deposit Total + Win Total + Total Upward adjustments - Withdrawal Total - Feature Purchases - Loss Total - Total downward adjustments”. You acknowledge, agree and accept that the difference between the Total Credit Entitlement and the Total Withdrawal Entitlement are Non-Transferable Credits as meant in section 3.2., subsection (c).

3.7. You acknowledge, agree and accept that the processing of payments is subject to a continuous process of scrutiny and review by financial institutions and that this may lead to significant delays and restrictions in the processing of Deposits as well as Withdrawals. Such delays may often be outside of the control of the Operator. You acknowledge, agree and accept that the payout of Your Total Withdrawal Entitlement may for this purpose or for other purposes be bound to a schedule of multiple installments (the: “Payout Schedule”), in compliance with the Withdrawal Policy.

3.8. In accordance with article 14, section 2 of the Gaming License, Your acceptance of the Agreement, including the acceptance of the GT&C, is a prerequisite for registering with the Brand and to access the Gaming Environment. If You do not accept the Agreement and the GT&C contained herein, do not register an Account and if you have an existing account You should refrain from using the Gaming Environment. If You have accepted the Agreement and the GT&C but You have changed Your mind and You do not longer intend to comply with it, You have the obligation to immediately contact the Organizer as set forth in the Communications Policy, to discontinue using the Gaming Environment and to close Your account with the Brand, in compliance with the Exclusion Policy.

During the said time frame, the Operator is not obligated to void any activities on Your Account, such as but not limited to placed Bets and incurred Losses on the basis of the argument that You have a request pending for Self-Exclusion.

3.6. Although a request for Self-Exclusion shall not necessarily by itself qualify You as a Vulnerable Person as meant in section 2.4., subsection (c), it does obligate the Operator to conduct a further investigation into Your personal situation, as meant in the said subsection. You acknowledge, agree and accept that the outcome of the said investigation may be that You shall indeed be qualified as a Vulnerable Person in compliance with the Exclusion Policy. As a result You would no longer be eligible to keep Your Account.

3.7. A state of Self-Exclusion may only be reversed upon Your properly formatted request to the Operator, if and when it complies with the criteria as set forth in section 3.4. You may request the Operator to reverse the Self-Exclusion, not earlier than three months have expired since the Self-Exclusion came into effect. Whether the Operator grants a request to reverse a state of Self-Exclusion, is at the discretion of the Operator.

3.8. The Operator is obligated to investigate excessive numbers of requests to reopen or close an Account into potential Abuse of Self-Exclusion. The outcome of such an investigation may lead to temporary restrictions to access Your Account, or it may lead to a permanent Exclusion as set forth in the Exclusion Policy.

3.9. You acknowledge, agree and accept that the Operator can only offer You the possibility of Self-Exclusion if You already have an existing Account. It is technically impossible for the Operator to Self-Exclude persons who are not known to the Operator as Curaçao does not currently offer a national registry of Excluded Persons. You agree that any personal data necessary to prevent You from accessing any gaming related services may for future reference be released to the Intermediary and the Gaming Control Board for the purpose of compiling such a registry. You furthermore agree that non-personal data shall be released on a quarterly basis to the Gaming Control Board for purposes of oversight.

The Operator is obligated to correct the Overbalance, as set forth in article 3, section 5, subsection (d) 2 of the RGA, so that it equals the Daily Win Limit, at the latest with any Withdrawal.

5.3. When calculating the Daily Win Limit, the following factors are taken into consideration:

You acknowledge, agree and accept that Deposits made on the day of the Win but after the Win itself are not included.

5.6. You acknowledge, agree and accept that:

The intermediary will then investigate the dispute, listen to both parties, gather evidence, and provide a binding decision on how the dispute will be resolved. If you don't comply with the policy or refuse to provide necessary information, the intermediary may simplify the decision process or dismiss the complaint. The policy also states that you have one month to opt-out of this policy, providing you with the option to try to resolve the dispute in another way.

11.4. You acknowledge, agree and accept that if Your notification does not comply with the said criteria, for example, if it would not clearly mention or explain the existence of a Dispute, the Intermediary is not required to treat the request as a Complaint and the Complaint Policy shall then not apply to Your notification.

11.5. The Parties acknowledge, agree and accept, as set forth in article 1, section 6 of the Agreement:

The Binding Decision binds the Parties with effect from the day that the other Parties have been provided by the Intermediary with a copy of the Binding Decision.

11.7. The Parties acknowledge, agree and accept that the Intermediary may deviate from the procedures as set forth in section 11.5, subsections (d) and (f) and suffice with a simplified, express version of the Binding Decision, only establishing the legal position between You and the Organizer and how the Dispute shall be resolved, if either You or the Organizer during the process of the handling of the Complaint refuse to comply with any of the Policies, including but not limited to:

not timely or not fully complying with a request for additional information, or by being intentionally dishonest or misleading;

other types of Abuse as defined under the Anti-Abuse Policy.

It shall be attached to the Binding Decision that was Reconsidered, equally binding the Parties as set forth in section 11.6.;

For the purpose of a Reconsideration the Intermediary may equally exercise the option as set forth in section 11.7.

12.4. The Parties acknowledge, agree and accept that, the Player and the Organizer are entitled to request the Gaming Control Board to provide an opinion on whether the Intermediary has properly executed the Complaint Policy. The Parties acknowledge, agree and accept that:

the Gaming Control Board is under no obligation to provide the said opinion;

the said opinion does not affect Binding Decisions in any way.

12.5. The Parties acknowledge, agree and accept that under the penalty of inadmissibility in arbitration or court, a request for the annulment of a Binding Decision, as set forth in article 7:904, CCC, can only be filed with a competent panel or arbitration or court:

(a) within a period of one calendar month after that Party was provided with the Binding Decision; and

(b) after the Intermediary was requested to reconsider the Binding Decision in accordance with section 12.2.; and

(c) after the Gaming Control Board was requested to provide its opinion, in accordance with section 12.4.

12.6 The Parties acknowledge, agree and accept that if the Parties are deemed legally bound to the Agreement and the GT&C herein, they shall refrain from making a request for an annulment as set forth in section 12.5. on the basis of arguments that would imply that the Parties are not legally bound, such as, but not limited to:

“I do not want to be bound to the outcome of the Binding Decision as it is not in my favor”;

“Although I did not opt out of the Compliance Policy, I do not trust the Intermediary in its appointed role”;

“I did not have a proper understanding of the Agreement and the GT&C contained herein”;

“I have not been provided with a reasonable opportunity to review the Agreement and the GT&C contained herein”;

“I was forced or tricked to participate in obtaining a Binding Decision”;

“I was not, or not sufficiently aware or made aware that I could have opted out of the Complaint Policy”;

“I am not bound to the Agreement and the GT&C as a right of claim was transferred to me by someone else”;

“Certain information that I have not shared with the Intermediary would put matters into a different perspective”;

12.7. The Parties acknowledge, agree and accept that:

the Binding Decision shall be under all given circumstances considered acceptable by standards of reasonableness and fairness, as set forth in article 7:904, section 1, CCC, if

You file a request for an annulment as set forth in section 12.5., without having complied with the requirements as set forth in that section and section 12.6., as You would then have ignored reasonably provided and less invasive options for recourse against the Binding Decision;

the Intermediary shall in its Binding Decision only make a determination of the relationship between the Player and the Organizer pertaining to their performance within the confines of the Gaming Service, as set forth in article 1, subsection 6 of the Agreement;

any restrictions or limitations imposed under any of the Policies are deemed reasonable and fair, as meant in article 7:904, section 1, CCC as these restrictions are derived from the the Gaming License and have been imposed for Your own protection as set forth in section 4.3., subsection (b); in the event that any clause or provision of the Binding Decision is declared partially annulled, void, illegal, or unenforceable by an arbiter or court of competent jurisdiction, its remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect. You acknowledge, agree and accept to negotiate in good faith to replace any invalid provision with a valid provision that achieves the same or similar objectives, as set forth in article 7:904, section 2, CCC;

12.8. You may, for any reason, opt-out of the Complaint Policy, seeking other means to resolve a Dispute, for example on the basis that a Binding Decision would under the given circumstances be unacceptable by standards of reasonableness and fairness. You may personally declare to-opt out within one calendar month after any of the Service Parties has first notified You that it intends to follow the Complaint Policy, by sending an email to Curacao eGaming, declaring that You wish to opt-out of the Complaint Policy. Once opted out, You remain opted out of the said Policy for that specific Dispute between You and the Organizer.

12.9. You acknowledge, agree and accept that:

You are provided with another opportunity to opt-out of the Complaint Policy, within one calendar month, each and every time after You have received notification by one of the Service Parties that it intends to follow the Complaint Policy;

if You have not opted-out of the Complaint Policy, You shall be legally bound to and to comply with the said policy and that You shall abide by a Binding Decision and that the Binding Decision given the multiple opportunities offered to opt-out is in the given circumstances considered acceptable by standards of reasonableness and fairness, as set forth in article 7:904, CCC.

Liability Policy

EXPLANATION - Article 13 of the Gaming Terms and Conditions (GT&C) explains the Liability Policy. It says that you have to follow and accept the limitations of liability that come with using the services. If there are any problems or disputes, you need to bring them up within a specific time limit or else they won't be considered. The rules and restrictions mentioned in the text are there to protect both the service providers and the consumer, and they encourage responsible use of the services.

Article 13, GT&C

13.1. This article outlines the Liability Policy as meant in article 2, section 2, subsection (i) of the Agreement. You acknowledge, agree and accept that You are legally bound to the Liability Policy and that You shall comply with the Liability Policy.

13.2. You acknowledge, agree and accept that the following limitations of liability apply to the Services offered under the Agreement and its GT&C contained herein, regardless of the form of action, whether in contract, tort, strict liability or otherwise:

by making a Deposit, You assume a certain level of risk associated with the use of the Services. The maximum liability of Service Parties to the Player for any damages, losses, or claims arising from or related to the use of the Services shall therefore be limited to the total amount of Deposits;

under penalty of inadmissibility in arbitration or court, any claim arising out of or related to the Agreement and its GT&C contained herein, including the breach, termination, or validity thereof, shall be brought no later than two years after the date on which the potential grounds for a claim arose. Any claim not brought within this two-year period shall be deemed waived and forever barred;

under penalty of inadmissibility in arbitration or court, none of the Service Parties with exception of the Operator may be held liable for any matters related to Withdrawals, as defined in the Withdrawals Policy. This includes, but is not limited to any arguments, disagreements, controversies or dissensions pertaining to the transferability of Credits as set forth the Account Policy;

the Intermediary cannot not be held liable for any acts or omissions regarding Complaint Policy, including the contents of Binding Decisions;

if a third party is deemed a subordinate to any of the Services Parties, such subordinate may invoke any legal defense made by the Service Parties, as if that subordinate were a party to the Agreement and the GT&C contained herein, as set forth in article 6:257, CCC.

13.3. You acknowledge, agree and accept that the Agreement and the GT&C contained herein is only effective between the Parties. Notwithstanding any limitations that may apply, there shall be no obligation to pay compensation if the violated standard does not serve to protect against the damage suffered by the injured party as set forth in article 6:163, CCC.

13.4. You acknowledge, agree and accept that the restrictions and limitations set forth in this article:

(a) represent a reasonable allocation of risk given the commercial nature of the Services, as:

(1) they reflect the value of the consideration provided by the Player to the Service Parties;

(2) the allocation of risk is reasonably divided and in alignment with the responsibilities and tasks of each Service Party under the Agreement and the GT&C contained herein.

(b) incentivize responsible gaming behavior and discourages excessive gambling, as Players are more likely to exercise caution when they know that their potential losses are limited to the amount of Deposits made.
